OHIO CONSTITUTIONAL MODERNIZATION COMMISSION

Recommendations from Public Information and Guidance

1. Open Meetings: Openness and transparency of the Commission is paramount
 - a. Full Committee meetings should be open to the public as required by Ohio's sunshine laws.
2. Website: Enhance the current website to better reflect the work of the Commission and the issues before it and have it serve as a means for the public to access Commission materials, but also submit public input.
3. Public Access to Commission Materials: Materials should be accessible to the public through the website, paper copies available at meetings and from the Commission staff once hired.

Items to be Discussed from Public Information and Guidance

1. Public Input:
 - a. Ways to have the public participate in the Commission's work
 - b. Holding meetings outside Columbus
 - c. Should the Commission meetings be streamed live on the internet or broadcasted over the public access channels?
 - d. Social media
